Foster Application

Terms:

- I am accepting this animal on a foster basis and am not obligated to adopt
- If I choose to adopt, separate adoption applications and fees will apply
- I will assume full responsibility and release AAP of any incidents or accidents related to the animal while in my care, including damages, bites, etc.
- All household members are in agreement of fostering this animal
- Fostering may require care of this animal for an extended period of time
- Two weeks notification must be given to AAP if I am no longer able to care for this animal
- I will notify AAP immediately with any change of address or phone number
- The animal shall not be under the care of any other person without consent of AAP
- If I will be out of town for any amount of time, I will notify AAP so that proper care for the animal can be arranged – the animal shall not be taken out of town
- I will provide adequate food, water, shelter, and care for this animal
- This animal will be released to AAP when someone is ready to adopt it
- This animal will be released to AAP if my care for it is deemed inappropriate
- This animal shall not be taken to the vet without the prior consent of the animal's chairperson or an AAP board member with the exception of a life threatening emergency.
- I may be asked to show this animal at AAP events or in a home setting to interested adopters
- All our animals must be housed indoors
- Tape your name, address, and phone number to the pet's collar right away.

Waiver Releasing Adopt-A-Pet for Accidents or Injuries

All efforts are made to keep people safe while working with Adopt-A-Pet animals. There will always be an Adopt-A-Pet Volunteer in charge. However, Adopt-A-Pet is not responsible for accidents or injuries which may result in the course of volunteering with our agency. It is the sole responsibility of the Volunteer/Parent to meet all expenses associated with any physical damages or personal injuries which may result.
